

Preetha Kalambaden

Analyst

Economist
Dr.rer.oec

Between 2005 and 2012 Preetha Kalambaden studied economics at the University of Bern with focus on macroeconomics and econometrics.

After her studies, she worked as economist for four years at the State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO) in the economic analysis group. In this capacity, she contributed to quarterly GDP estimations and economic forecasts (focus trade).

She pursued a PhD in applied economic policy and regional economics at the University of Bern between 2016 and 2021. During this period, she worked as research and teaching assistant at the same institution.

She joined Fahrländer Partner Raumentwicklung in February 2022.